

CONFERENCE HANDBOOK

Welcome! Come in! We're so glad you're here.

This handbook will be your side-kick for this year's conference, full of handy information.

However, if you're a speaker your questions might be better answered by the entirely separate Speaker Handbook. Remember there are also plenty of volunteers around to help solve any challenges, we're all here to make this the best DDDSydney yet.

Code of Conduct

We are dedicated to providing an inclusive and welcoming experience for everybody. Please make sure you familiarise yourself with the Code of Conduct. This applies to everyone participating in any DDD Sydney events.

All attendees, speakers, sponsors and volunteers at our conference are required to agree with the Code of Conduct. Organisers and volunteers will enforce this code throughout the event. We are expecting cooperation from all participants to help ensuring a safe, welcoming environment for everybody.

Reporting an issue

- Speak to the organiser or volunteer in a blue coloured shirt
- Direct message @dddsydney on twitter
- Email team@dddsydney.com.au

What to do if someone makes a complaint about you

- DDD Sydney organisers and volunteers will have a conversation with you, and listen to you.
- Listen to the complaint with an open mind and consider the effect rather than intent of the behaviour in question
- Don't be dismissive of the complainant
- Understand any advice given on how to act in the future
- Comply with the directions of the DDD Sydney organisers and volunteers

We believe everyone here is coming from a good place, and we expect that you're learning, just like we are.

Save the Planet

We highly recommend you take along a reusable water bottle and/or cup to minimise the effect on the environment. If you have any environmental initiatives you think we should run next year, please let us know.

Afterparty

Due to hefty insurance requirements, we sadly can't run an afterparty event. However people usually informally gather at Bar Broadway to debrief on the day, it's always a very welcoming crowd. While we don't run the event, we still expect all people to abide by the Code of Conduct at this gathering.

Issues & Questions

On the day for any issues or questions please feel free to speak to a member of the DDD Sydney team who will be easily identifiable by their blue DDD Sydney T-shirts.
